

#pembrokeshowcase

Wednesday, April 25, 2018 • Novotel Toronto North York

Space is limited — call us today to register for this amazing FREE workshop!

9:00–9:15 Registration

9:15–9:30 Larry Swartz, Moderator: Welcome & Take Me to Your Reader

9:30–10:30 am: What’s New in Literacy?

9:30–9:45 Amanda Yuill: Reaching & Teaching Them All

Amanda offers fresh insights and practical strategies for using body language, humor, shared experiences, and curriculum to connect with every student.

9:45–10:00 Anne Elliott: Cultivating Readers

Learning to read isn’t just about the how, it’s about the why. Get inspired to engage your students with books, and show them both the value and the joy of reading.

10:00–10:15 Terry Anne Campbell: Literacy Out Loud

Discover the powerful role that oral language plays in developing key reading and writing skills. Terry will show you how to make kids’ talk work for a vibrant classroom!

10:15–10:30 Your Turn! Ask questions and discuss your thoughts, new and old, on literacy in the classroom!

10:30–10:45 Coffee Break & Book Display

10:45–11:45 am: Critical Learning

10:45–11:00 Kathy Lundy: Creating Caring Classrooms

Kathy will offer innovative ways to open an honest and respectful dialogue in your classroom that will help students see the world from different perspectives.

11:00–11:15 Joey Mandel: Keep Growing

Do your students have an “I can’t” attitude? Learn to help them change their mindset so that they can meet both learning and social-emotional challenges with a smile.

11:15–11:30 Mary Fiore: Moving Math

Discover how critical thinking skills can help students ask questions, interpret and reason through mathematical arguments, and solve a multitude of problems.

11:30–11:45 Your Turn! Ask questions and join the conversation around thoughtful, healthy classrooms.

11:45–12:15 David Booth: What Is a “Good” Teacher?

Explore forty years in teaching and learning with one of Canada’s foremost educators, and take a look at the personal qualities and characteristics that lead to professional excellence.

12:15–1:00 Buffet Lunch & Book Display

Meet the Authors

David Booth

David Booth is Professor Emeritus at OISE-UT, where he has trained teachers to use innovative ways to promote literacy among children for more than 30 years. A popular international speaker, David has delighted thousands with his energy, enthusiasm, and commitment to all forms of literacy.

Terry Anne Campbell

Terry Anne Campbell is a Professor in the Schulich School of Education at Nipissing University. A storyteller and former elementary teacher, Terry has traveled and published widely, presenting on classroom practices that support engaged literacy learning. Contact Terry: terryc@nipissingu.ca

Anne Elliott

With over 15 years of teaching experience in grades K–8, Anne Elliott has shared her dedication to literacy as a literacy coach, literacy learning coordinator, and librarian. Anne has also created powerful professional learning experiences and educator materials for the Thames Valley District School Board.

Mary Fiore

Mary Fiore is responsible for implementing effective mathematics teaching practices at all grade levels as Math Consultant with the Peel District School Board. Involved in developing teacher training, she works with numerous associations that provide opportunities for educators to reflect on their practice.

Kathy Lundy

Kathleen Gould Lundy has been involved in teaching and the arts for over 30 years. A popular speaker and leader, Kathy has worked on the development of curriculum documents and instructional videos on many aspects of literacy and learning. She currently teaches at York University and at OISE-UT.

Joey Mandel

Joey Mandel is a full-time teacher and education consultant, specializing in peer-to-peer relationships in order to build a healthier classroom. She also runs go Social kids, a private educational consulting and therapy clinic that coaches parents in building kids' social-emotional skills.

Larry Swartz

Larry Swartz has explored literature-based learning with students and teachers for more than 30 years in North America, and all over the world. As a classroom teacher, consultant, and instructor with OISE-UT and Brock University, he has inspired colleagues and children alike to learn in new and exciting ways.

Amanda Yuill

Amanda Yuill has taught in public and private schools in Canada and Japan. A teacher of primary grades, music, physical education, dance, drama, and English as a Second Language, she is passionate about occasional teaching as a way to explore all aspects of education. Contact Amanda: amandayuill.com